

Maylis Chopin

Student at École Estienne in graphic design and strategies of communication, in Paris

About me

I am 22 years old and a third year student at École Estienne, in Paris, in graphic design, specializing in strategies of communication. I am curious, I experiment with as many mediums as possible. For the past three years, I was given a comprehensive approach to graphic design, which allowed me to highlight my interest in web design, layout, packaging, typography, and all types of print medium in general.
